Live Stream: As you may be aware, we have been struggling with issues with our Live Stream the last two weeks. It has taken some time to locate the issue however we did find out that YouTube has made some changes that no longer support our old equipment and the new equipment has been ordered. Despite all efforts to get it here by this weekend, we have been notified that it won’t be. The services occurring over the weekend will be recorded and posted on Sunday. We apologize for the disruption in our streaming. The new equipment is costing us over $1500 dollars so if you feel inclined to donate, please put on your tithe envelope “Live Stream Fund”. Thank you for your patience while we get our system upgraded and up and running once again.

Next Sabbath: Pastor Jeff will be speaking next week.
